

The Michael Maggio Immigrants' Rights Summer Fellowship Program

2023 FELLOWSHIP APPLICATION

Introduction:

The primary mission of the Michael Maggio Immigrants' Rights Fellowship is to strengthen law students' long-term commitment to promote justice and equality for vulnerable immigrant groups.

The Fellowship was established in 2009 by the Center for Human Rights and Constitutional Law (CHRCL), the National Immigration Project of the National Lawyers Guild (NIP/NLG), and the American Immigration Lawyers Association (AILA) to commemorate the life and legal contributions of Michael Maggio.

Michael Maggio was an extraordinary immigration attorney and individual who was a life-long advocate for justice, equality, and peace. Throughout his career, Michael received countless professional awards and was honored for his extraordinary legal representation, astute strategizing, unwavering commitment to the highest ethical standards, and deep passion for justice and upholding the rule of law. He was an active member of AILA and served on the Board of Directors of the National Immigration Project. Michael died in February 2008 after a courageous battle with cancer.

Fellowship Description:

The Fellowship will be awarded to one law student each summer to work on a student-initiated project. Students must submit a project proposal with an organization willing to host the student for 10 weeks and provide a $1,500 stipend (the Maggio Immigrants' Rights Fellowship will provide a $2,500 stipend). The Fellow will be required to provide reports half-way through and at the conclusion of the Fellowship, regarding his or her progress in meeting the goals of the project. The host organization must be willing to supervise and provide all logistical needs of the Fellow including office space and supplies. Host organization will also be asked to provide a brief report at the end of the Fellowship.

Eligibility:

- Law student (1L, 2L, or 3L) in good standing at an accredited law school program.
- Demonstrated commitment to social justice and/or immigrants' rights issues.

The fellowship program also aims to support applicants from diverse backgrounds, including applicants with personal experience of the immigration enforcement system, immigrants, women, people of color, persons with disabilities, persons with diverse gender and sexual identities, and formerly incarcerated people.

HOST ORGANIZATION AGREEMENT

The Fellowship awards $2,500 to a law student to work on an immigration related student-initiated project. Applicants must submit a project proposal with an organization willing to host the student for 10 weeks. The student's proposal must include a collaborative plan with the host organization to partially match the Fellowship award in the amount of $1500. This matching may be done either by direct compensation OR through other means, e.g., law school public interest funding, independent fundraising, etc. This ensures that the student will receive total funding in the amount of $4,000.

Please have the organization with which you are applying complete and sign the portion below:

- On behalf of my organization, I agree that we will provide the $1500 partial matching funds.

 - My organization is unable to provide a $1500 partial match at this time, but I will work with the applicant to develop a fundraising plan to secure this amount.
- * If selecting option 2, please describe plan below.
